

Sawari

The word sawari indicates that which has been of utmost importance,
In the Japanese sense of what is beautiful.

The word sawari also means interference.
The sawari is an interference device.

The word sawari is also used to designate a woman's monthly periods.
Women have a natural interference; a sawari every month.
Interference is a means by which life is born.

A series of photonic media, installation and print artworks.

“The Difference that makes a Difference”

A creative installation demonstrating laser interferometry,
the technique that has helped detect gravitational waves,
allowing us to sense the nearly imperceptible,
making the invisible vividly visible,
opening a window onto a wondrously vibrant world
of complex thermodynamic interactions.

Interference